

Amphibious Invasion

One teacher of seventh-graders came to the subject of World War II, and a test question was, "What was the largest amphibious assault of all time?" Expecting to see "the D-Day invasion" as the answer, found on one paper, "Moses and the plague of frogs."

That's a pretty good answer if you ask me! Of course wouldn't it be wonderful if all of us had Bible stories on our minds at all time?

We could learn well from what God told the children of Israel:

Deuteronomy 6:7 You shall teach them diligently to your children, and shall talk of them when you sit in your house, when you walk by the way, when you lie down, and when you rise up.

What is it WE teach? What do WE talk about when we sit in our houses, when we talk a walk, when we go to bed or get up in the morning? Is that what our children are hearing, or other family members, or friends or fellow workers?

Jesus was right about things that come out of our mouths come from our heart! It would do us all a bit of good to prepare our heart with the right stuff!

Love To All!
